

History & Care instructions for your new South Pacific Island Or Maori Koru Play mat

Congratulations on purchasing your new contemporary mats from Global Kids Oz and Recycled Mats.

Your mats are made from recycled polypropylene (i.e. plastic bags, medicine bottles, tinfoil's, carpet fibers etc) under fair conditions of work and safety in India, the Polynesian & Maori mats are designed by a family in New Zealand that have ancestry family ties to both Samoa and New Zealand Maori cultures hence our designs reflect these 2 cultures and are culturally sensitive. Our Aboriginal range of mats are designed locally here in both Queensland and in South Australia

We cannot guarantee the life of your mat, as with any product it depends on how the item is treated. What we can say is if you look after your mat, clean it with a vacuum cleaner if being used in a dry environment and washed clean with a hose or warm soapy water (do not use chemicals) in a wet or dirty environment, and if it is dried out before storage and you always ensure you fold your mat along the seams and then roll it gently you should get years of enjoyment out of your new mat.

Although these mats are suitable for both indoor and outdoor use, we do suggest that you leave your mat permanently in a wet place or in full day to day sunlight as these factors will cause early determination of your mat.

We also suggest that if your placing chairs or tables on your mats, ensure that the feet of the table and chairs are not thin or sharp as this may lead to tears in your mats when chairs and tables are moved while sitting on your mat.

The mats are suitable for so many different uses, a few are child care centers, library story time mats, lounge rooms rugs, children's play rooms, picnic's, beach trips, dog grooming shows, camping, market stalls, wall motifs and so many other options. The world is your oyster on how these mats can be used.....
